Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.
If we hold firm, we shall reign with Christ.
It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

Reflection

Today's gospel is one of the stories unique to the gospel of Luke. At the same time, it is a commonly known story that is often cited to demonstrate the value of saying thank you. However, as usual, there's more to this story than initially meets the eye. One of the recurrent themes of the gospel is at play here: the message of salvation that Jesus brings is available to all, not just the Jews.

The first reading is an interesting link with the gospel of Luke. In chapter 4 of the gospel, when Jesus visits Nazareth and preaches in the synagogue, he later tells a story about the prophets Elijah and Elisha responding to the needs of Gentiles rather than Jews. He tells the story to make the point that the message of salvation is not reserved exclusively for the Jews. The incident involving Elisha that Jesus refers to in chapter 4 is the one we hear in today's first reading.

Whilst both the first reading and the gospel tell stories about the healing of those with skin diseases, the common factor is actually about their expressions of gratitude and conversion of heart. In the gospel, all ten men are healed but it is only the stranger; the foreigner; the Samaritan, who comes back to give thanks and to praise God. The others – Jewish men, presumably – are only concerned about themselves and have no time to acknowledge the graciousness of God that they have experienced. The gospel writer has Jesus emphasise the point that it is the Samaritan – the outsider – who has recognised God's activity in his cure and come back to give praise and thanks. It is only he who has experienced the change of heart; the conversion of faith.

Today's Psalm: Psalms 97: 1-4

The Lord has revealed to the nations
his saving power.

Sing a new song to the Lord
for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm
have brought salvation.

The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.
Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy.

The Lord has revealed to the nations
his saving power.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our combined Parishes Vision

We, the family of Our Lady of the Rosary Parish and St Mary Magdalen Parish are people of God, loved unconditionally by God. We are called into a communion of life and love with Jesus Christ, who impels us to deepen our relationship with each other and with all people without distinction or favoritism. We are inspired by the Holy Spirit of God to use our gifts in the service of others and as stewards of creation. We are committed to the protection of all children, young and vulnerable people. Their inherent dignity is respected and nurtured within our safe parish environs as their fundamental right. This is particularly so for the most vulnerable children, including Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and children with special needs.

The Reception of Holy Communion.

There is a tendency among some members of our congregation, to “dip” or “self instinct” the consecrated host in the chalice. In keeping with Christ’s command to take and eat and to take and drink, and consistent with the Church’s tradition that the Sacrament be ministered, the practice of dipping fingers with the consecrated host in the chalice can also lead to other hygiene issues. I would therefore, ask you please desist from the practice. Thank you.

Micahyla Elisha Bragado,

Ned Harry Brentall.

Let us remember these Children, their Parents, Godparents and extended families in our prayers as they begin their Baptismal Journey.

This also is a time to gently reflect on our own journey of Faith and Commitment to Jesus. Welcome.

Child Safe Standards

Our parishes have a dedicated phone number for your use if you have any concerns regarding the safety of children or vulnerable people in our communities.

This number is 0478 850 754.

Always believe, and never doubt. If a child tells you they’ve experienced something that has made them feel unsafe, listen to them, believe them, and don’t judge or pry for more information. With their permission, seek help from a professional. Reporting of child abuse is mandatory for anyone who is a registered medical practitioner, a nurse or midwife, a teacher, school principal, or police officer, but beholden on all of us.

The Archdiocese is committed to the safety, wellbeing and dignity of all children and vulnerable adults.

Pre-loved Pedlar – AGM—TODAY

The Annual General Meeting of the Pre-loved Pedlar will be held following 10.30am Mass on Sunday 13 October in the Malmsbury Chapel. If you have even had the slightest thought about volunteering at the Pedlar this maybe the opportunity to see what the Pre Loved Pedlar is about. You can ask questions of the Committee of Management without pressure or obligation. And there will probably be a cup of tea and a biscuit. All are very welcome

VMCH Villa Maria Catholic Homes have issued a general invitation to all Parishioners to the open day to celebrate the completion of McAuley, Trentham.

The Open Day will be Friday the 18th October from 11.00am to 1.00pm.

There will be a display unit open for browsing, and you can have a good old sticky beck. Light refreshments will be served in the Community Rom of the Village. It's taken the best part of 5 years but the Village has happened. The partnership between VMCH and the Parish of St Mary Magdalen's will go along way to securing the financial viability of the Trentham Parish. For those residents already in the Village, congratulations and we hope that the lifestyle of village living is all that you want it to be.

As the eye can see Kyneton's Marcellin Village (a great recognition of our Marist Brothers history) is quickly taking shape. The anticipated completion date is March 2020.

Working With Children Check

Our Parishes are obligated by Victorian Legislation to require all volunteers to have a current WWCC. Over the past few weeks we have been asking Parishioners to provide us with their current WWCC. We know that many of you will have this check via your employer but we still need the details. And if you volunteer somewhere apart from the Parishes, the Parishes must still be registered and linked to your check. The next rotation of rosters will begin in December 2019 and we must have all our records up to date, as we will be audited on this aspect of our operations. The obligation is placed on us by Government as one step in the protection, firstly of Children and the Vulnerable, but also for our volunteers and paid workers. Please have your current details to the Parish Office as soon as possible. If you do not have a WWCC or you have an expired WWCC please make a time to gain one or renew your expired one. This can be done online yourself, or at the Parish Office. There is not cost involved.

ASRC

The weekend of the 19th & 20th October is our collection weekend for the Asylum Centre in Footscray. Especially needed are: black tea in bags, healthy breakfast cereal, tinned fish in oil, coconut cream, basmati rice, tinned tomatoes, tinned chickpeas, shampoo, honey, pots & pans in good condition. This may be the only access to a grocery store that some Asylum Seekers have. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Thankyou.

Heaters Kyneton Church

Once again we ask that the turning off of the heaters in (Kyneton) Church be left up to an adult. We have had to have had repairs carried out to the heaters—the on/off string, and the cause given to us by the plumber is the misuse of the mechanism, ie jumping to get the string and then undue weight/pressure is placed on the mechanism when the jumpee's feet hit the ground. We very much appreciate the unsolicited help, but to avoid further damage and injury, this task must be carried out by an adult (and tall).

Special Collections for the "missions"

20th October is World Mission Sunday and the 8th of December is the collection for Melbourne overseas Mission, we are going to have ONE collection on the 20th October to cover both. If your desire to donate to one of these appeals in particular then there will be Envelopes—unique to that appeal—on the tables at the back of each Church. The generosity of our Parishioners is overwhelming, and some mission begins at home.
